Current Scenario of the Accounting Sector

• Our accounting industry is highly dynamic in nature. Every day you will come across various notifications, amendments and new developed software's coming into market.

• India is considered as the booming market with a considerable boom in job market too.

• However, there is lack of resources (skilled man power) as per required Industry standards.
Contd..

• Due to rise in expectations of the working management the gap needs to be filled between the expectations and skill sets of employees.

• The professionals (CA or MBA Finance from Tier I colleges) grab the cream jobs taking away a handsome pay package.

• Working management while hiring today look for an accountant with a complete skill set like having a good communication and personality along with practical knowledge.

• Therefore, considering the current scenario of the accounting sector, how are we preparing for it??
Expected skill sets of an Accountant

• Accounting profession is not a rocket science and accountants need not be scientists to do the accounting work. Still it requires a logical mind and a broad knowledge about the accounting & taxation process.

• Since the accounting field is dynamic i.e. changes with the business needs and technology, an accountant needs to get himself abreast with the updates.
Contd...

• An accountant needs to tackle with people around, either with the management, colleagues, even clients. Hence, good communication skills as per the industry standards is of utmost importance. An accountant should be aware of all the business jargons used in the accounting sector.

• Knowledge of accounting software's like Tally and SAP.

• Working knowledge of use of Microsoft Office i.e. Excel, Word, PowerPoint etc.

• Focused mind to always excel in the work allotted with an intent to grow up the ladder towards achieving the promotions.

• Last but not the least, ability to grasp the situations and to mold your innovative mind enough to provide solutions to the ever emerging challenges.
Accountant – Master of All

- An accountant’s job is not restricted to passing the accounting entries and maintaining books of accounts along with the supporting documents.
- Accountants kitty carries all the other related jobs like filing of quarterly VAT returns, service tax returns, TDS returns, maintaining payroll, preparing annual accounts etc.
Contd...

- An accountant has to step into various shoes and should possess the required technical skills to properly complete the differed tasks.
- Accountants’ job is to maintain all the timelines and provide the output within the due dates set either internally or by the statute.
Today’s on the Job role of an Accountant

• Looking at the job portals, the expectations for the post of an accountant are very professional in nature. The employer seeks a person who can handle various activities along with handling the accounts.

• Reporting like preparing monthly reports (MIS) for management to review, maintaining accounts payables/receivables and tracking them simultaneously, preparing cash and bank reconciliation statements, assisting in internal audit and statutory audit etc.

Dominating Role of Professionals – CAs, MBAs, BBAs, etc.

- Current job market will immediately absorb you if you are a CA or MBA from Tier I college.
- The professionals have an edge over the mere B.Com, BBA, M.Com and MBA from smaller colleges.
- The professionals have in their curriculum detailed theory along with practical knowledge of the subjects and approach towards study and career is more polished.

• The package these professionals grab is a decent sum as compared to simple graduates
• The growth rate of these professionals is always up and rising
• Expectations from the industry towards these professionals is high too, in terms of knowledge of the subject, communication skills, ability to cope up with the tedious tasks and many more
• So is there any course, which is professionally driven, apart from CA or MBA, which will give a mere B.com or an M.com student an additional advantage to strive in the accounting industry.....???
BAT program to overcome the lacunae

• A mere B.com, BBA, M.com or MBA from smaller colleges does not fetch a significant growth in today’s corporate world. However, it is not always possible to invest great deal of time and money over the professional courses.

• Therefore, apart from graduation or simple PG what extra can you do to stand confident enough along with the professionals in the finance industry?
BAT PROGRAM

• We at Edupristine have researched and after putting a great deal of efforts have successfully designed a course which will give you much better understanding of Accounting, Taxation, MIS, Reporting and compliances which you will need to deal day in and day out in Accounting firms (Big 4s), KPOs, MNCs or other hard core finance and account profiles.

• The BUSINESS ACCOUNTING AND TAXATION (BAT) course is molded in such a fashion that you are trained for a career in accounting giving you a practical insight of the subject required on the job from Day 1.

• Right from understanding the basic journal entry, final accounts, tax compliances, we will also help you to enhance your soft skills (business communication), understanding advanced Excel and the most essential, SAP training

- Registering for a BAT course is a solution to have a competitive advantage even if not equal to a CA or MBA
- Strengthening the basics of accounting and taxation
- Practical knowledge i.e. current industry expectations and how to deal with those expectations
- Satisfactory pay package
- Promotions in line i.e. With a relevant experience and knowledge a B.com, BBA, M.com or an MBA from smaller college can also become a CFO / CEO of the company 5-10 years down the line depending upon the performance
